LOCAL NEWS.

For the sole and express purpose of informing our lady readers upon a subject so essentially necessary and eminently interesting as the fashions, we state that the 22nd instant was the grand annual opening day with the principal millinery establishments. The most noticeable item which transpired on the occasion was that bonnets are now to be had at greatly reduced prices as compared with last year. The long veil is still to be worn for the face, and the small mask veil which was formerly used is now attached to the back of the bonnet, so as to fall over the coil of hair. There is no change of a very decided character in the style of arranging the hair. One of the new modes includes crimps, waves and short curls, passing around the head, with a band between each row of curls, the back hair being arranged in a high waterfall or a coil. The gipsy bonnet will be worn this spring and summer, but there is in reality no decided novelties in any department of fashion. We observe also that clocked stockings are again coming into favor with ladies, who wear looped or short skirts. They are appealing to feminine tastes through an infinity of patterns, all new and beautiful. "Trellis" patterns seem to be the most plenty; but the richest are "Mossies," and the most brilliant the "Star" styles. They come in spun silk and in Lisle thread, that equals the finest silk in softness. Very few are in white. Most are unbleached, and have the appearance of flesh color.

The Washington and Alexandria Railroad, which has a working party engaged now on St. Asaph street, between King and Cameron, in repaving the street, propose to erect at once, at the intersection of King and St. Asaph streets, a handsome and comfortable depot building. Iron pillars along the outside of the double track, or at the edge of the sidewalks—leaving a carriage way on each side of the tracks—will support the roof, and form the uprights of the walls. The building will be two stories high, and will contain the offices, and the necessary apartments about a railroad station. Cars for this road are now building, and will soon be completed, but as there is a gap of unfinished track between the city and the Poor's House, it will be at least a month before passengers enter them at the new depot.

Holy Week this year is in this city, is being observed with as much, if not more, devout and Christian practice as ever before. Its celebrations in all countries, and among various creeds are observed with extraordinary religious exercises as being identified with the closing days of the Saviour's earthly career and sufferings. On Friday—Good Friday, as it is termed—the crucifixion and death of our Lord, are commemorated with great solemnity. The Episcopal Church in England and its colonies, and in the United States, and the Catholic Church throughout the world observe with special religious devotions and exercises the celebration of this most affecting and solemn period in the history of the Church and of mankind.

We learn that, though the interview yesterday between the Mayor and Major S. P. Lee, in reference to policing the city, as preventive of a probable advent of cholera, resulted in no definite and specific action, still appropriate suggestions were made, and a free, full and satisfactory conversation entered into, which both gentlemen earnestly desire may be the means of securing the required object. Maj. Lee agreed to furnish, for $10 a month, per hand, as much labor as was required, to be under the management and control of the Superintendent of Police. He also will use his best exertions to procure the needed transportation.

We call attention to the sale at public auction to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, on the premises, of the popular and well known Mansion House Restaurant. Mr. Lucas, who has for the past year successfully and profitably carried on this establishment, has made arrangements to enter another line of business, in another city, and consequently is compelled to dispose of this favorite house. His rooms are furnished in the most luxurious style, and his billiard tables, of which he has three, are of the latest patterns; his stock of liquors is large and excellent; his lease runs for five years; and his establishment is insured for four thousand dollars. All will be sold.

Miss ZELDA HARRISON will, this evening, give her first grand concert at Liberty Hall, assisted by Miss Rosa Cooke and Mr. Segun. We have not the least doubt but that the music-loving portion of our citizens will be delighted with this opportunity of gratifying their taste for the beautiful. A rare entertainment is promised, and many familiar ballads will be sung.

POLICE REPORT.—MAYOR'S OFFICE.—G. W. Waters, F. M. Storey, and W. H. Ross, arrested and confined in the Watch House for disorderly conduct, upon claiming to belong to company A, 6th U. S. Volunteers, were, this morning, turned over to the military authorities.

We mentioned yesterday that two negroes had lately died of small pox in one house in this city, and that one more had yet remained there. This morning Major S. P. Lee sent an ambulance there, had the case removed to beyond the city's limits, the clothing burned, and the house fumigated.

The alarm of fire last night was caused by the accidental burning of a chest of clothing, in a small frame house on Alfred street, below the Friendship Fire Company's Engine house. The fire apparatus was promptly out, but no damage was done except that mentioned.

Again we have to offer the same excuse to our readers at Fairfax Court House, for the non and irregular reception of their papers.—The Gazette is deposited in the Post Office in this city regularly, before seven o'clock, on the evening of its publication.

The weather is, and has been for several days past, cold and wintry. Ice forms every night on the shores of the river. It is more like December than March—though in our climate it is not unusual to have "cold spells" this month.

GOLD.

New York, March 27.—Gold 126 1/2.

An election to fill the offices whose incumbents are elective by the Council, will take place in the Council Chamber to night.—The applicants for the numerous positions are as plentiful as well could be imagined, and they and their many friends are striving to the utmost, to secure the desired object.

The water in the river was lower to day than it has been for years. The Wawaset on the trip grounded before she reached her pier; the crews were walking about the channel banks, as though upon some favorite corn field.

Shad are selling in Richmond at sixty cents the pair. Here they are, whew—too much.

THE MORALS OF THE DAY.—The Pittsburg Commercial concludes an article as follows:

"We imagine the feelings of a young and innocent lady from the country, who last week visited New York city and tried to get a corset made, but was told it could not be done under two weeks, because all hands in the large establishments, she visited, were engaged in making false calves for ladies who wear tilting hoops. Tilting skirts are now 'all the rage,' and have been, in New York city, for some time. The thing is brought about by ladies having hoops made with a sharp and stiff curve at the foot, that will tilt the dress and expose more or less of what, for the long dresses, existed only in the imagination.

"These two late inventions are directly traceable to Paris, as indeed are almost all the modern fashions. To these are we indebted for the 'styles' which fond mamma instruct their daughters to imitate." It seems enough to say, it is the 'fashion,' to make it a plea for following it.

"One of the latest fashions is to have dancing soirees 'for young people.' A rule of this fashion is, that no parent or guardian be admitted. During the past winter, fathers and mothers have permitted their daughters to go to these soirees with young men, to sup and to dance, and to come home with them at three and four o'clock in the morning. Young girls do not find it a blot on their characters to go with young men, unaccompanied by their parents, to a public hotel, to dance and eat and drink with them, and to come home with them towards daylight.

"In the face of all this, we are not astonished to hear that among the better classes of society there has been a prodigious falling off in marriages. Among such people, it is not surprising that the number of divorcees should exceed the number of marriages. Look at the papers, East and West. Day after day they are filled with scandals, desertions, and nameless crimes—not among the lower classes solely, but in the higher and more fashionable. They must continue to increase daily."

GREAT FALLS GOLD MINES.—We learn from a number of persons who have visited the gold diggings near the Great Falls of the Potomac that a very rich vein of gold-bearing quartz has been opened on what is called the "Collins Farm." Several miners, who have worked in North Carolina and California, pronounce it as rich as any they have ever seen. There are plenty of rumors of gold discoveries on several other farms, but we have no conclusive evidence in relation to any, except the one named. The company working this vein have not yet put their machinery in operation, though their houses are built and their engine on the ground. It is rumored that they have sent off twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars' worth of gold, gathered whilst opening the mine.—Rockville (Md.) Sentinel.

John P. Hale, Minister to Spain wants more salary. His twelve thousand dollars in gold is not enough. Greely says that sum is more than the aggregate compensation of the Governor, Council, (five) and Senate (twelve), of the State of New Hampshire, whence Hale hails. However economical at home, the Minister must make a little show among the Dens and Seniors. Again your men transplanted from poor and stunted localities are very greedy when it is at the expense of the Government! Hale has always been an economist, and assisted greatly in cutting down the salaries and perquisites of Charges and Consuls. It is not contrary to equity that he should learn how to put his theory in practice.—Rich. Dispatch.

COMFORT AT FUNERALS.—The progress of luxury is repaid—especially in New York. A company advertises that they have a convenient and beautiful cemetery near that city; that it is reached by railroad; that the cars are warmed in cold weather, so that mourners suffer no exposure; that, in fact, they have introduced all the modern improvements, and can undertake to bury the dead in the shortest time and in a style which leaves nothing to be desired in the way of ease, rapidity and comfort. Competitively may be the life of trade; but it is slightly shocking to have that life carried up to the grave.—Boston Transcript.

The juvenile Senator from Rhode Island is a gay and festive youth. In the course of an elaborate speech from this gentleman, we find the following sentence:

"I intend," said Senator Sprague, "I intend always, when I rise in my seat here, to smile. I consider the face that will smile only when it sees something to cause it to smile and excite its interest as not the kind I wish to have. I do not wish to occupy that position. I believe that the discussion of a question before the Senate that interests members should be discussed in a friendly and smiling condition. I trust it will be the condition I shall always occupy in this body."

The manufacture of false eyes is a large business in Paris. The average sale per week is four hundred. There are twelve establishments for this work, each employing twenty workmen. For the poor there are second-hand visual organs, which have been worn for a year by some eyeless duke, and exchanged for a new one after twelve months service.

The Charleston South Carolinian, in referring to Gen. Sherman's recent letter on the burning of Columbia, says: "Gen. Sherman, we perceive, presists in the assertion, that the City of Columbia was destroyed by order of Gen. Wade Hampton. Hampton joins issue upon the fact. The omnis probandi rests upon General Sherman."

The time of departure of the "Ephesus" from Liverpool for Norfolk has been postponed until the 1st of May, owing to the necessity of repairing the coppering of the steamer before putting her to sea. The postponement will give our people ample time to collect at their cotton and tobacco for shipment.

Three cargoes of Cuba sugar for St. Louis are detained at quarantine below New Orleans. The press calls for the removal of the quarantine as there is no cholera or fever on the Mexican gulf.

The French government has issued proposals for six million pounds of tobacco, which cannot be filled in New Orleans as formerly.
